DETAILED ACTION

1. The Group and/or Art Unit location of your application in the PTO has changed. To aid in correlating any papers for this application, all further correspondence regarding this application should be directed to Group Art Unit 2643.
2. This communication is responsive to the applicant's pre-amendment filed on 10/12/2001.

Drawings

3. Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as "Prior Art" because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g).

Specification

4. Content of Specification:
  - (a) Title of the Invention: See 37 CFR 1.72(a). The title of the invention should be placed at the top of the first page of the specification. It should be brief but technically accurate and descriptive, preferably from two to seven words.
  - (b) Cross-References to Related Applications: See 37 CFR 1.78 and MPEP § 201.11.
  - (c) Statement Regarding Federally Sponsored Research and Development: See MPEP § 310.
  - (d) Reference to a "Microfiche Appendix": See 37CFR 1.96(c) and MPEP § 608.05. The total number of microfiche and the total number frames should be specified.
  - (e) Background of the Invention: The specification should set forth the Background of the Invention in two parts:

Art Unit: 2643

- (1) Field of the Invention: A statement of the field of art to which the invention pertains. This statement may include a paraphrasing of the applicable U.S. patent classification definitions of the subject matter of the claimed invention. This item may also be titled "Technical Field."
- (2) Description of the Related Art: A description of the related art known to the applicant and including, if applicable, references to specific related art and problems involved in the prior art which are solved by the applicant's invention. This item may also be titled "Background Art."
- (f) Brief Summary of the Invention: A brief summary or general statement of the invention as set forth in 37 CFR 1.73. The summary is separate and distinct from the abstract and is directed toward the invention rather than the disclosure as a whole. The summary may point out the advantages of the invention or how it solves problems previously existent in the prior art (and preferably indicated in the Background of the Invention). In chemical cases it should point out in general terms the utility of the invention. If possible, the nature and gist of the invention or the inventive concept should be set forth. Objects of the invention should be treated briefly and only to the extent that they contribute to an understanding of the invention.
- (g) Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawing(s): A reference to and brief description of the drawing(s) as set forth in 37 CFR 1.74.
- (h) Detailed Description of the Invention: A description of the preferred embodiment(s) of the invention as required in 37 CFR 1.71. The description should be as short and specific as is necessary to describe the invention adequately and accurately. This item may also be titled "Best Mode for Carrying Out the Invention." Where elements or groups of elements, compounds, and processes, which are conventional and generally widely known in the field of the invention described and their exact nature or type is not necessary for an understanding and use of the invention by a person skilled in the art, they should not be described in detail. However, where particularly complicated subject matter is involved or where the elements, compounds, or processes may not be commonly or widely known in the field, the specification should refer to another patent or readily available publication, which adequately describes the subject matter.

- (i) Claim or Claims: See 37 CFR 1.75 and MPEP § 608.01(m). The claim or claims must commence on separate sheet. (37 CFR 1.52(b)). Where a claim sets forth a plurality of elements or steps, each element or step of the claim should be separated by a line indentation. There may be plural indentations to further segregate subcombinations or related steps.
- (j) Abstract of the Disclosure: A brief narrative of the disclosure as a whole in a single paragraph of 250 words or less on a separate sheet following the claims.
- (k) Drawings: See 37 CFR 1.81, 1.83-1.85, and MPEP § 608.02.
- (l) Sequence Listing: See 37 CFR 1.821-1.825.

5. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout and content for patent applications. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

The following order or arrangement is preferred in framing the specification and, except for the reference to "Microfiche Appendix" and the drawings, each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as section headings. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) Title of the Invention.
- (b) Cross-References to Related Applications.
- (c) Statement Regarding Federally Sponsored Research or Development.
- (d) Reference to a "Microfiche Appendix" (see 37 CFR 1.96).
- (e) Background of the Invention.
  - 1. Field of the Invention.
  - 2. Description of the Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) Brief Summary of the Invention.
- (g) Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawing(s).
- (h) Detailed Description of the Invention.
- (i) Claim or Claims (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) Abstract of the Disclosure (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) Drawings.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2643

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

6. Claims 1 and 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Platt (US-5,226,086).

Regarding claim 1, Platt discloses a hearing aid fitting apparatus comprising: a fitting calculator (CPU of 26) equipped with a first interface (-24-22-20-30) to transmit signals to a hooked-up hearing aid (30) and with a second interface (-20-22-24-26) to receive response signals (42) to auditory stimulus; and a computer unit (26), wherein, as a function of said response signals received from the second interface, said computer unit computes output signals for the first interface to transmit (Fig. 2) and the first and second interfaces are merged into a single interface (24, 22, 20) which is configured as a bi-directional communication unit (Fig. 2).

Regarding claim 3, Platt discloses the hearing aid fitting apparatus, further including a rating input unit (42) of auditory-stimulus response signal, wherein the rating input unit is connectable to the single interface (Fig. 2).

Regarding claim 4, Platt further discloses the hearing aid fitting apparatus, wherein said single interface is a branched unit comprising at least one first connector (20 to 22, 22 to 24, 24 to 26) for connecting the fitting calculator, and at least one second connector (20 to 42) connected to a rating input unit (42) and at least one third connector (20 to 30) connected to the hearing aid (Fig. 2).

Art Unit: 2643

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 2 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Platt (US-5,226,086).

Regarding claim 2, Platt does not clearly show that said single interface is an I<sup>2</sup>C interface as claimed. Since I<sup>2</sup>C interface or bus is well known in telecommunication art and commercially available, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to be motivated to provide any suitable communication device, such as I<sup>2</sup>C bus transmitting signals for a desirable geometrical characteristic housing, such as tube or enclosure for the hearing aid fitting apparatus, in order to provide a better quality signal transformation.

Regarding claim 5, Platt does not clearly show that at least a communication provided between the single interface and any connector is at least partly wireless as claimed. Since wireless telecommunication is very well known in the art today, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to be motivated to provide a wireless communication, such as a wireless modem for the hearing aid fitting apparatus as an alternate choice, in order to provide a simpler way to transmitting signals.
